

Data Declaration

Table 81

Full-time Law Enforcement Employees by State by State Agency and Other Agencies, 2006

The FBI collects these data through the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program.

General comments

- All information in this table is as of October 31, 2006.
- This table provides the number of law enforcement officers and civilians employed by state agencies and other agencies listed by state. The table also includes the number of law enforcement officers and civilians employed by a participating federal agency, the National Institutes of Health.
- The UCR Program defines law enforcement officers as individuals who ordinarily carry a firearm and a badge, have full arrest powers, and are paid from governmental funds set aside specifically for sworn law enforcement representatives.
- Civilian employees include full-time personnel such as clerks, radio dispatchers, meter attendants, stenographers, jailers, correctional officers, and mechanics.

If you have questions about this table

Contact the FBI's Criminal Justice Information Services Division via e-mail at cjis_comm@leo.gov or by telephone at (304) 625-4995.