

Data Declaration

Table 80

Full-time Law Enforcement Employees by State by Metropolitan and Nonmetropolitan Counties, 2006

The FBI collects these data through the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program.

General comments

- All information in this table is as of October 31, 2006.
- This table includes data for both sworn law enforcement officers and civilian employees for each participating law enforcement agency in metropolitan and nonmetropolitan counties listed alphabetically by state.
- The UCR Program defines law enforcement officers as individuals who ordinarily carry a firearm and a badge, have full arrest powers, and are paid from governmental funds set aside specifically for law enforcement.
- Civilian employees include full-time personnel such as clerks, radio dispatchers, meter attendants, stenographers, jailers, correctional officers, and mechanics.
